

Arkansas Early College High School

AECHS is a statewide program allowing advanced high school students to earn college and high school credits simultaneously. Students across the state receive advanced curricular opportunities through the world-class Arkansas distance learning network. Currently thirteen colleges and universities are partnering with forty high schools to make this statewide program available for their students. These outstanding students have an average composite ACT score of 30.

Outstanding Student Achievement Awards

Catherine Campbell
Blended AP Language and
Composition I
Dollarway High School
University of Arkansas at
Pine Bluff

Kristen Bunn
Composition I
Glenn Rose High School
Henderson State
University

Steven Haney
Blended AP Language and
Composition I
Izard County
Consolidated
Arkansas State University

Jay Porter
Blended AP Calculus I
Hamburg High School
University of Arkansas at Monticello

Lauren Davis
Western Civilization
Scranton High School
University of Arkansas at Monticello

Emily Bruton
Introduction to Psychology
Hope High School
University of Arkansas
Community College at Hope

Jaclyn Austin
Elementary Spanish
Lead Hill High School
University of Central Arkansas

Joseph Proffit
Pre-Calculus
Dermott High School
University of Arkansas at Monticello

Alecia Patton
Literature I
Warren High School
University of Arkansas at Monticello

Jasmine Balch
Composition I
Danville High School
Arkansas Tech

Laura Linn McMahan
US History I
Crossett High School
University of Arkansas
at Monticello

Corey Rinker
Survey of Mathematics
Hector High School
Arkansas Tech University

<http://se.sesc.k12.ar.us/echs>